Welcome back:

Cordial greetings from Guatemala, Land of Eternal Spring. We are very happy that you have decided or are considering becoming part of our family in Guatemala. When we take the time to serve God as missionaries, we are anticipating the soon return of our Lord Jesus. Every day in the camp there are unique challenges that will give you the opportunity to create unforgettable memories. For your experience to be pleasant we have some rules and guidelines to maintain order.

Before continuing with the next steps for the acceptance process we invite you to send us an email to (godshelpinghandsguatemala@unav.edu.mx), with your full name, area or areas you are interested in serving and also how long you intend to serve.

Yours sincerely.

Dr. Elden Lopez
CEO GHH.

Volunteer Information

As in all aid organizations, people who wish to serve by donating their time and talents make things move faster all to show the love of Jesus through service and hasten his prompt return.

Gods Helping Hands depends on short- and long-term volunteer staff, as well as staff who always work continuously to strengthen the organization.
